What questions do you have?

I write these articles each week hoping that someone out there will read them and find hope, feel called to donate or volunteer, or find the courage to ask for help. I try to write about things that I think people may wonder about like the article about "how to love an addict." But what I have never considered is just asking you. Really giving you the opportunity to ask your questions and providing real responses. So, now is your chance. You can send your questions to, discoveryhousedirector@gmail.com and I will submit a response in the paper. You can also leave the question in messenger on Facebook. I will not use names and will omit any identifying information. I look forward to hearing from you.

In His grace,
Jessica
