Discoveru House and Dair

When you need a place... We're here to help...

Discovery House, in Spirit Lake, Iowa, provides transitional housing for up to six months for homeless men and women and for those who are in recovery from alcoholism and other addictions. They may or may not have completed a substance abuse treatment program. The program offers case management to help residents set realistic goals for obtaining steady employment and position themselves for self-sufficiency upon leaving the program.

Residents have access to shower and laundry facilities, mail delivery, emergency food supplement, telephone, clothing, toiletries, counseling services, transportation assistance, financial planning, and life skills training. In addition, referrals are made to support service agencies in the community for food, clothing, health care, financial planning/ budgeting, employment, and housing.

Discovery House is dependent upon public and private donations, fundraisers, and grants for operational expenses. An average of eight residents are served per month.
